OIL LEASE VALUES SHOWING A DECLINE

INDIAN AGENT SOLD CUSHING LEASE FOR $1 AN ACRE BONUS YESTERDAY.

The rapid fluctuation of the value of oil leases was well illustrated yesterday when Dana H. Kealey, superintendent of the Indian agency at Muskogee, sold an oil and gas lease for a bonus of $1 an acre that a few weeks ago was sought for $15 an acre. The lease in question was that of Wiley Lassley, a Snake Indian, in the south-west quarter of 1-12-14, near the heart of the Cushing field. The lease was sold at public sale in the county court house yesterday to the oil production company, the only bidder, for a bonus of $150.

For weeks oil men had been seeking the land, offering the Indian allottee as high as $15 an acre. She persistently refused to sell until recently when a dry hole had practically extinguished her property, resulting in the low bid yesterday.
